CE For Professional Use

One Step Drugs of abuse Test

One Step drug of abuse Test kits are lateral flow, one-step, qualitative, competitive inhibition immunoassays. The tests are based on the principle of the highly specific immunochemical reactions of antigens and antibodies. The test systems employ unique monoclonal antibodies to selectively identify specific drug of abuse and the corresponding metabolites in urine samples with a high degree of sensitivity. The cut off concentration for specific drug of abuse and its metabolites has been developed at the concentration standard set by NIDA (the National Institute on Drug Abuse) for the qualitative detection of corresponding drug in human urine specimens.

Features

1. Highly sensitive and specific;
2. Fast and easy to use, results are read visually without the need for instrumentation;
3. No extra reagent is needed;
4. Used to screen urine for the presence of corresponding drug of abuse and its metabolites;
5. Single test is available in both strip and cassette styles;
6. 2 to 10 multi-drug test panels are available (combinations subject to customers' selection).
